B. G. WILDER & CO.,

PATENTEES AND MANUFACTURERS OF

THE BEST FIRE PROOF SAFE IN THE WORLD!!

JEWELERS' and BANKERS' SAFES made to Order, Lined with Hardened Steel.

HOUSE AND PLATE SAFES.

TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true 'SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine Salamanders" has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

Every Merchant should have one of these cheap and secure Safes.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all parts in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Wednesday, May 23, 1866.

OUR TERMS

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Management of the Rail Roads.

We have heretofore intimated that the great interest of the State in the Rail Roads, is about all that has been left her by the war. Her own interest, therefore, and the interests of her tax-paying people, demand the fostering care of the Executive, and the wisest and most efficient and judicious management. The Rail Roads of New Jersey have taken almost the burden of taxation from the shoulders of her people.—North Carolina is by no means as fortunately situated, yet we are strongly inclined to believe, that, if our Roads were conducted with unwonted vigor and good management, they would pay, and, after a while, pay well

We are not in a position to know whether our Roads are now conducted, or have been, at any time, with the vigor, business energy or success, that they ought to have been. We only know that our condition requires a quicker movement, more system, more energy, a higher reach of enterprise, than formerly. We often talk about the times and the men for the times, but it is in Rail Road matters, particularly, that we need men for the times. We find, that as we leave our Roads and get upon trains more Northward, there is a perceptible difference, just as we do when we get into a Hotel North of us. We used to think, if we were blindfolded and knew nothing of our surroundings, we could tell in a moment when we were put on a North Carolina Rail Road, or dropped down in a Carolina Hotel. Now what we need, is the same life, the same energy, tact, promptness, that we find North of us. And if we have the men in the State to put things in that kind of a strut, if we had the control of the Rail Roads, we should put them in position. In other days we might have let well enough alone, but, at the present time, "it is root pig, or die." We must bestir ourselves.

As the time approaches for the annual election of Directors, &c, for the Rail Roads, we discover a growing interest in them. We begin to think we have a great many more Rail Road men in the State, than we supposed, and we discover it a very difficult matter to find a man opposed to Gov. Worth. We know he is popular, and deservedly so, but his enemies have disappeared amazingly. This confirms us in a long settled opinion, that if it could have been otherwise, the State should never have had any direct control in the management of either Banks or Rail Roads. It is in this way that politics has had more or less to do with both institutions from the beginning. We believe injury has been the result. But the thing is done, and there is no way to manage the matter, but to take it as we find it.

What Gov. Worth will do, we are not authorized to say. We believe he will conscientiously do what he believes to be right and best for the Roads, for the interest of the State in them, and for the several communities interested.—We observe that his usual course is, to listen quietly to all, to get information from all sources, and to weigh well the information he has, and then he takes the responsibility. And we have observed that it is useless to complain afterwards. He "never grieves over spilled milk."

If all of those who claim now to be his friends, hope to be appointed directors, officers, &c., through Executive influence, we would suggest that they devise some scheme by which several times as many vacancies will be created as the law allows. Otherwise, some one will be disappointed. Let all who desire positions present their claims and leave the Governor free to act with the best lights before him, and we are sure he will do his duty.

If we were Governor, as matters now stand, and could secure the co-operation of the Board of Internal Improvement, such are our convictions of the overruling necessity of having the management of the Rail Roads put up to the highest point of improvement, we should certainly adopt the following rules for our guidances: We would appoint no man to control so important a State interest, simply because he desired it for his own good—nor because he was a warm personal or political friend, and least of all because he was a political enemy. We should select men for their intelligence, their integrity and high public spirit, their energy and business tact, their devotion to what they undertake their known interest in the welfare of the State and their interest in the Rail Roads. Men bound by their own interests, or the interests of the community only, which they represent, we should not appoint. If we could find men of the right stamp, of equal or superior claims among our own political friends and supporters, who sanction our views and policy, we should unhesitatingly appoint them in preference to those opposed to us. But if we found a man opposed to us politically, yet warmly committed to the interests of the Road and of the State, possessing superior qualifications as a Rail Road man, we should most certainly appoint him.

State Officers.

Our cotemporaries, the Charlotte Democrat and Winston Sentinel, agree that they do not see the necessity for the appointment of an Adjutant General and State Geologist by the Governor, in view of the difficulty of raising revenue to meet the expenses of the Government.

First, the laws in force in North Carolina, authorize and require the appointment of an Adjutant General and State Geologist. The Legislature failed to amend the law, and the Governor deemed it his duty to fill the vacancies.

Second, there was a real necessity for the re-organization of the Militia,—hence the necessity for an Adjutant General. But, he is appointed with a very small salary.

Third, the state of the school fund and the want of a full knowledge of the real value and condition of the swamp lands and other matters provided for by law, required the appointment of a State Geologist, whose salary is also regulated by the ante-war regime.

The expense to the State of these officers is very small, and their duties are really important and necessary at the present time. We therefore think the Governor acted wisely and in conformity with his duty to appoint them. He simply performed an Executive duty which the law imposed on him, without giving him any discretion in the premises.

But Mr. Dick said, "the only question with him now was, whether a man was loyal and loved his country. If he was so now he was ready to take him by the hand, as a brother."—This is also a noble sentiment. We agree with Mr. Dick.—Standard.

That is precisely the point we have been trying to bring our neighbor to, for months.—We agree precisely with Mr. Dick. We are ready to recognize every man a loyal man, who has taken the oath required by the President and who conforms to that oath; in other words, who performs the duties of a good citizen, by obeying the laws and supporting the government. In this, Mr. Dick and the Sentinel are agreed.

But the Standard says it agrees with Mr. Dick. Why then does it not agree with the Sentinel? Because forsooth, it assumes without one particle of proof, that the Sentinel and its supporters are not of this stamp. Now who made the Standard a judge; We affirm that we agree with Mr. Dick.

We assert that the Sentinel and its supporters are of that stamp. That we are good and loyal citizens according to any fair constitutional test. The Standard intimates that we are not. We join issue with it, and demand its proof to the contrary. We defy the Standard to point out a single disloyal man who sustains the Sentinel, to be determined by any fair and acknowledged test.

Mr. Dick also said, "we should all forget and forgive the past." This is a noble sentiment.—It was uttered by Mr. Dick and the writer of this, time and again, when they were in Washington last May.—Standard.

Yes, Governor, you said a good many things in May, and June, and July, and August, and September last, which you have not said since November last. Mr. Dick sticks to his old text, but his confrere, the Ex-Governor, has forgotten it.

Mr. Davis' trial by a Civil Court in Virginia is pronounced by Sumner as the end of the great comedy of Mr. Davis' arrest, imprisonment and release. That is what the country needs, the end of the whole affair of carnage and blood. The Judiciary Committee in Congress have failed to find any evidence to sustain the charge against Mr. Davis of complicity in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln.

Freedman's Bureau.

The following official announcement of the relief of Gen. Whittlesey and the transfer of the affairs of the Bureau to the charge of Gen. Ruger, has been handed us for publication:

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN, AND ABANDONED LANDS,
Headquarters Ass't Commissioner, State of North Carolina.
RALEIGH, N. C., May 21st. 1866.

CIRCULAR, No. 5.

In compliance with Special Orders, No. 232, War Department, Adjutant General's office, Washington, May 16th., 1866, Brevet Major General Thomas H. Ruger, Commanding the Department of North Carolina, relieves me as Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands for this State.

General Ruger, who assumes the duties of this office, is well known throughout the State and has the confidence of all classes of citizens.

To the officers who have assisted me in organizing the Bureau in North Carolina and sustaining its operations, I desire to express my thanks, for their fidelity and zeal in discharging the important and often perplexing duties which have been imposed upon them.

E. WHITTLESEY,
Brev't. Brig. Gen'l. and Assis't. Com.

Official: ASA BIRD GARDNER,
1st Lieut. Ag't. 7th. Regt. V. R. C. A. A. G.

We incline to the opinion, that so long as the Government deems it necessary and advisable to continue the Bureau and Military Departments in the South, the most fit and proper disposition that can be made of the matter, is to place it entirely under the control of the Department commanders. The labors of the Department commanders may be increased by it, but it fixes the responsibility where it properly belongs, it being a military institution, and guards the government more directly against malfeasance and imposition.

LAWS, JOURNALS &c.—An order for laws, journals, &c., from "F. M." Pekin, N. C. containing $1 has been handed to the Secretary of State who will attend to it as soon as he can. We repeat, we have neither Journals of Convention, nor laws or Journals of the Legislature for sale. The Public Printer has printed no extra copies for his own benefit. All enquiries on this subject should be addressed to the Secretary of State.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—Our informant was in error in stating to us that there were 400 students at the University of Virginia. The correct number is 258.

On the 19th of May, $5,873,000 in specie, left the United States for Europe.

"A FISHERMAN."—We have received a long article from a friend bearing this signature, in reply to the Commercial, at Newbern, in regard to the management of the Atlantic Rail Road. The pressure upon our columns, the length of the article and the nature of the discussion, compel us respectfully to decline its publication.—We have no room for discussion upon that subject at present. The time may occur when we may consider it necessary to show our opinion, and then if any differ with us they shall have a fair showing.

NEW MEMBERS.—We learn that Dr. Thos. Person, of Wayne, Jere. Pearsall, Esq., of Duplin, and Jas. H. Foy, Esq., of Onslow, have been elected from their several Counties to supply vacancies in the Convention.

General Joseph E. Johnston has been elected President of the Tennessee River Railroad, at a salary of $6,000.

The Banks.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In a recent number of your paper, you express a doubt whether the stockholders of the Banks can be released from their liability as such by the recent act of the Legislature passed, among other things, for their relief. It is respectfully insisted that they can, for the following reasons:

It is a well established principle of law, that a Bank Charter is a contract between the State and the stockholders, which neither party to the contract can disregard or set aside, without the consent of the other, but which undoubtedly may be rescinded by the consent of both. When, for instance, a corporation tenders a surrender of its charter, the Legislature, as the proper agent of the State, may accept it, and, on the other hand, if the Legislature proposes such surrender, and it is accepted, the result in law, is precisely the same; the corporation is dissolved.

Now, the recent act for the relief of the Banks provides that they may be wound up upon certain prescribed terms, the first of which is, that the stockholders, in general meeting, shall determine to adopt the provisions of this law and take the necessary steps to close the Bank, and that, and certain other specified stipulations, being complied with, the charter of the Bank is declared to be dissolved, and, I presume, it cannot be denied that upon the proper observance of the requirements of the law, the corporation is dissolved.

Upon the dissolution of a corporation, certain legal consequences follow,—the chief one of which is the total extinction of all liabilities and all rights; so that, after such dissolution, a corporation can neither sue nor be sued, can no longer collect, or be compelled to pay debts, and a moment's consideration of the nature of a corporation must satisfy every one that this must be so.

A corporation, in the language of the law, is an "artificial being," the creation of law, which can exist only upon certain conditions.

It can, during its existence, do and have done to it certain things, all of which must necessarily cease when it ceases, and upon its dissolution, so far as its past rights and liabilities as a corporation are concerned, is just as if it had never existed; hence, in order to avoid one of the results of dissolution prior thereto, this act provides that all the debts due any Bank have to be assigned to receiver or commissioner, who is authorized to sue in his own name. But for this, such dissolution, as provided for in the act to which we refer, would wipe out all debts due to, as well as by, the Banks.

But the debts due by the Banks, as such, are actually extinguished upon the proposed dissolution, and the assets are transferred to the commissioner as the means, the only means of payment of the liabilities of the Banks.—The debts of the Banks, as such, are gone, extinguished, because, among other things, there is no one to be sued. Now, the charters of most of the Banks provide that, upon their insolvency or inability to pay, each stockholder shall be liable in twice the amount of his stock. This a collateral liability, and the Bank is the principal debtor, and the discharge of that is a discharge of the surety. This principle is very clearly established in a late case by our Supreme Court,—the case of Mallory vs. Mallett. There, the stockholders were liable for the debts of the corporation. Upon its inability to pay, the corporation ceased, the Court decide that its debts also ceased, and as the stockholders were collaterally bound, the extinction of the debt of the principal (the corporation) was an extinction of the entire liability and the stockholders were discharged. Now the validity of the act under consideration cannot be affected upon the ground that the discharge of the stockholders impairs the obligation of a contract; because, as already shown, all contracts cease upon the dissolution of a corporation, and that whether such dissolution is the result of legislative interposition or by limitation of the charter. In all cases the consequence is the same, it matters not how the dissolution is brought about; the only enquiry being, has it actually taken place?

If, therefore, it could be urged as a valid objection to the act under consideration, that the dissolution of the Bank Charters, by discharging the stockholders, impaired the obligation of contracts, it might, with equal force, be insisted that any act of a Legislature which authorized or sanctioned the dissolution of a corporation, would be void and consequently their charters must be perpetual, let them vitilate them in the most glaring manner. To avoid such consequences, there were several acts passed by our Legislature, at different times, providing against such consequences, by continuing the charter for three years, for the purpose of winding up. But these acts are understood to be repealed by the recent act for the relief of the Banks, and very properly so, too. The Banks being all insolvent, utterly unable to pay their debts, it is best that they should close up as soon as practicable, with as little sacrifice and loss to the stockholders as possible. By the discharge of the stockholders, they will be relieved, and no one will be hurt, but one class, and that is the speculators, who purchased Bank notes with the view of ultimately collecting them out of the stockholders. For this class no one has any sympathy; they have acted without any, for the misfortunes of others, and, if they loose, they need expect, as they deserve, none on their part. They may collect a small, very small, per centage of the bills, through the Commissioner; the rest and far the greater part of their bills they must loose. The sooner these bill-holders understand this, the better.—This is their fate. Let them be wise and give up all hope of collecting their Bank bills out of the stockholders. This they will never be able to do, and their inability to do so, will rejoice the heart of every good CITIZEN.

PRACTICAL WORKING OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS LAW.—The first practical operation of the Civil Rights law that has come to light in this region of country, we learn occurred in a neighboring county a week or more ago. A negro girl swore her child to a white man.—Denton (Md.) Union.

WASHINGTON, May 22.

Telegrams from Vienna report that the U. S. Minister, Motley protested against the further shipment of Austrians to Mexico. The troops were then returned home with a limited furlough.

The financial panic in London culminated on the 10th. of May, in the suspension of Overend, Guernsey & Co. Their liabilities ten to twelve millions sterling. Their failure is attributed to heavy speculative shares at a heavy discount. A run was commenced by depositors and the Bank of England declined assistance in consequence of the crisis. Sir Morton Peto and Betto failed for four millions pounds sterling.

Liverpool mercantile credit association and other suspensions are reported. Intense excitement prevailed in financial circles. Business was almost suspended. The government has resolved to suspend the Bank Charter Act.

Presbyterian General Assemblies.

ST. LOUIS, May 22.

The Old and New School Presbyterian General Assemblies met here for the first time since 1837. Each Assembly has its Moderator. The project of re-union has been discussed. Twelve hundred persons voted in favor of re-union. It is definitely stated that measures will be instituted to effect the object immediately.

Great Fire in New York.

NEW YORK, May 22d.

By a fire this morning, in the city, the Academy of Music, the Lutheran Church, the Medical University, two piano factories and other buildings on 14th. street and third Avenue were destroyed. The Maretzick and Graus troupe lost valuable wardrobes. Estimated loss three or four millions. Several firemen were killed.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 21.

SENATE.—In consideration of Mr. Fessenden's physical inability, the Senate did not consider the report of the reconstruction committee as recommended. The Colorado bill and the President's veto were also postponed. The remainder of the session was devoted mainly to the affairs of the District of Columbia.

HOUSE.—This body was chiefly occupied today in the consideration of the preamble and resolutions of Mr. McClung, of Missouri, declaring that the continued contumacy in the late seceding States rendered it necessary to exercise Congressional legislation, in order to give to loyal citizens in those States, protection in their natural and political rights enumerated in the Constitution, and in addition thereto, makes it necessary to keep on foot a large standing army to maintain the authority of the government; and whereas, the country is already over-burdened by the war debt incurred to defend the nationality against an infamous rebellion, and it is neither just or politic to inflict the vast additional expense on the peaceful industry of the nation, therefore

Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on Reconstruction to inquire into the expediency of laying contributions on the seceding States, to defray the extraordinary expenses that would otherwise be imposed on the General Government, and that said committee be instructed to report by bill or otherwise. The House adopted the above, seventy-three against thirty-five.

The House also adopted the following, introduced by Mr. Henderson of Missouri:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this House, that all just and righteous governments are intended not to confer rights and privileges upon the subjects thereof, but to secure to each and every individual the full and free and untrammelled exercise of all those rights which God has bestowed upon him.

Resolved, That the safety, happiness and prosperity of the people, require that just and equal penalties be annexed to the violation of law, and that those penalties be inflicted on trangressors not for the purpose of retaliation or revenge, but to secure subordination and obedience.

Resolved, That we will stand by and sustain the President in executing the laws of the United States, upon a sufficient number of the leading rebels in each of the States lately in insurrection against the national government, to vindicate the majesty of the law, to sustain the confidence of loyal people and to warn the refractory for all time to come.

The tax bill was discussed.

Freedman's Bureau.

Maj. Gen. Howard, Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau has issued an order, which among other particulars, calls attention of all officers to reports in circulation concerning acts of cruelty and severity towards freedmen, on their own part, and to reported derelictions in rendering accounts, &c. He says every officer so accused shall have an opportunity for vindication before a court martial. The order also forbids investments of officers in planting interests, as the Commissioner says, such action will almost inevitably lead to corruption, as it has already to bitter accusations.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, May 21.

In the market to-day, Cotton was buoyant.—Three thousand bales sold at 38 to 40. Flour dull, 10 cents lower. Southern $10,60 to 16,75. Wheat quite under. Western accounts advanced it from 3 to 5 cts. Corn active and advanced one cent. Pork dull at 32 to 35. Whiskey dull at 26 to 27. Sugar steady. Naval stores quiet. Turpentine 95. Rosin 3,40 to $15.

Gold closed at 32, owing to news by the Cuba. Previous quotations 1,30½.

Foreign News.

NEW YORK, May 21.

The Cuba arrived at Halifax to-day bringing dates to 13th. Cotton had declined one half to a penny. Sales for the week 46,000 bales.

There is a financial panic. Bank rates were ten. Five twenties U. S. at 64 to 66. Consols 86¾ to ¼ths. Ower and Guernsey & Co., have failed.

The continental news is war like, but hopes are still entertained for peace.

Pardons.

WASHINGTON, May 21.

Com. Leon Smith, late of the Confederate Navy, was pardoned to-day by the President, upon the recommendation of several prominent Republican Senators and others. Henry Bragg, of Missouri, late officer in the Confederate army, was also pardoned.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on the 3. of April last, in the county of Warren N. C., Mrs. P. LILIE DAWSON BRADLEY KEARNEY, wife of Mr. W. H. A. Kearney and daughter of Louis Williams of Martin county N. C. Sister KEARNEY, was born the 15th of Jan. 1823 and at the time of her death was 43 years 1 month and 11 days old.

She was united in matrimony with Mr. W. H. A. Kearney on the 14th of May 1840.

At a camp meeting, held at Marshal's Church Roanoke Circuit in 1841 she made a profession of religion under the ministry of Rev. Mr. Gregory, and united herself to the M. E. Church, of which she remained a member for 25 years; consistent in all her walk fervent in her piety, clear and stedfast in her faith; she lived a burning and shining light to all around her. Happy herself in the religion she professed, she confidently recommended it to all who came about her.

And she wonderfully demonstrated to all who were associated with her the great sufficiency of true Bible religon (as she often expressed it) to fill with peace and joy in midst of long continued and severe affliction as well as in health.

I frequently visited her in her affliction, and always found her full of peace and hope, waiting with great patience, the time of her change.

She often said to me that she was ready and willing to go, whenever the Lord should will, but that she was also willing to stay and suffer here just as long as the Lord saw it best, praying that she might by her patience, submission and faith recommend to her friends her holy religion, and glorify her Saviour, by showing the sufficiency of his grace. I never visited her, but I felt that I had been profited in my own soul.

Truly her path way shone brighter and brighter to the perfect day. The last time I visited her, she told me that she thought her stay here would be very short but that all was well, she was ready. And felt assured that the grace of God would sustain her to the end. Her favourite expression was, "the Lord is so good, his grace is sufficient for me."

She was a Bible reading, praying and self denying christian and the closing scene of her life was truly blessed and happy. A short time before her death, she said to her husband, that she was perfectly happy, and requested him to say to her friends, that she was ripe for Heaven.

Sister KEARNEY was a devoted wife, a true friend a kind mistress, and her charity knew no bounds. A great friend to the poor. But she has passed away from earth and has entered upon her Heavenly rest, and now beholds with rapture the face of that Jesus whom she loved so much and in whom she so confidently trusted for salvation. Her frail body rests in sweet quietness, and waits the touch of his hand, that will quicken to life and render it immortal. May the God of all grace greatly bless her life and truth to all of her friends and may his kind comforting hand, sweetly rest on that spirit who has sustained so great a loss and by his grace keep him until the meeting above. [Reported Expressly for the Sentinel.]

Trial of Major Jno. H. Gee.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

SATURDAY, May 19.

J. A. Nichols farmer, Wake Co. N. C.—Member of Freeman's battalion at Salisbury, drew rations for the prison.

Prior to the coming of the prisoners of war, orders to the guard was to halt prisoners coming in 10 feet of the fence, 3 times, and if they did not stop, to fire.

Maj. Gee's orders to me, were to get all the rations I could, and get them down as soon as I could; to report to him daily the rations I received, the quantity and quality.

I received them as they came in, irregularly. Once or twice I did not get them until into the night.

I have been as often as 5 or 6 times a day to get them from the Commissary.

I would take the requisition to Maj. Myer's office and draw from Jones, Allison and McCrovy. I drew them daily as they came in and receipted for what way issued, on the back of the requisition. When I did not get enough, I reported to Maj. Gee, and he would go and see Myers.

He exhibited anxiety on account of the shortness of rations.

I can't tell how often they did not issue flour, they said they did'nt have it, 1 pint of rice to 10 men. The allowance of beef was 1 lb, but there was no regularity in the quantity. I never drew full rations of beef. When he had sorghum, he gave it in lieu of beef. Myers said he could not get it when he did not give it to me.

The bread for the prisoners was cooked in 2 lb loaves, 2 lb and 4 ounces to allow for shrinking.

I have known Maj. Gee to go up to Myers always when I reported that I could not get requisitions filled.

I have been up in night time to get rations several times. Maj. Gee seemed very glad when I reported that I had plenty. He praised me, and said I would get to be a Commanding General some of these days. I have drawn when soldiers had to wait and could not get it.

I have heard him say he had made out requisitions for clothing for all the prisoners.

There were as many as 8 or 10 barefooted in my company.

Maj. Gee's orders were to see that the rations were weighed out and safely delivered at the cook-house.

I drew for my company sometimes. The rations for the prisoners and soldiers were the same.

Cross-Examined.—The prisoners of war were there some near 6 months, I reckon. I furnished them with some fresh beef, nearly every day, not enough to supply them. I got 4 days rations of bacon during the whole time.

I got sorghum, or beef, a small quantity every day.

Frequently was short of flour, some 6 or 8 days out of ten, highest I ever drew was 62 bbls of flour, sometimes 4 10 or 15 bbls a day. I drew rice or peas every day.

Re-Direct.—I drew the bacon at one time, just before they were ordered off. I drew bacon twice, 100 or 150 lbs.

We received no additional report of the evidence, up to going to press.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mr. Best, Secretary of State, gives notice in regard to the laws and journals.

P. C. Cameron, Esq., has lost a fine horse and offers reward for him.

Maj. W. L. Saunders gives notice to the debtors and creditors of the estate of the late Mrs. L. P Cotton.

Messrs. Maxon & Strong offer great inducements in the way of cheap goods.

The Stockholders of the Lockville Mining and Manufacturing Company hold a meeting on the 8th of June.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—It will be seen that the commencement at this Institution will come off on the 14th. of June next. Rev. Mr. Carraway preaches the sermon. The orator has not yet been named.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—We hope the Ladies of the City, may not forget the appointment, to meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Senate Chamber, to form the Memorial Association. A fair correspondent calls attention to it, in our columns to-day.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.—This body convenes this day at 11 o'clock, in the Baptist Church in this city. We are requested to say, that delegates on their arrival, will proceed to the basement of the Baptist Church, where a committee will be in attendance to assign them homes.

STATE CONVENTION.—This body convenes in this city on to-morrow. But few members have arrived at this writing.

WAKE COUNTY COURT—This Court has been in session the present week. Most of the business has been of a private character. We have heard of no case of special interest.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—The Salisbury North State learns that Mr. Charles Van Eaton of Davie County in this State, recently disappeared in the neighborhood of Winnsboro', S. C., where he was engaged selling mules and a wagon, under such circumstances as warrant the impression that he has been murdered by a man named Thomas, alias Hodge, to whom he sold out his mules and wagon.

ROWAN SUPERIOR COURT.—This Court is in session this week, Judge Mitchell presiding.—The Old North State remarks that "if all the officers of the law, from the lowest to the highest, were as able, pure and upright as Judge Mitchell, and were actuated by the same spirit in the administration of it, we would soon have complete order restored and crime repressed in this State." This is a high, but well-merited compliment.

Memorial Association.

A meeting was appointed for last Thursday, but was not sufficiently well attended to admit of forming a regularly organized association.—It is therefore now earnestly requested, that on (this) Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in the Senate Chamber, the ladies generally, of all denominations, will be in attendance.

We are all deeply interested in those who went out from their "loved ones at home," to brave the terrors of battle, the hardships of camp and hospital, and finally yielded up life.

The proud determinations and high hopes, with which they answered the call of their country, were quenched by untold sufferings, and they welcomed death, knowing that their graves must be made among strangers, yet, confiding in the impulse of true, patriotic and generous hearts to preserve their remains from neglect and forgetfulness. Oh! Let us not disappoint the hopes of our departed heroes.

None who participated in, or witnessed, the solemn scene last Saturday evening, while was borne to his last resting place one of the brave sons of our City,—can fail to recognize the great privileges granted us of honoring our dead, some of whom still sleep away from home and friends. Let us, then, do all in our power to honor those who rest in our [illegible] remembering that none are strangers, [illegible] together for the same cause, and [illegible] her they may now be lying from those [illegible] have them, the more entitled are their rem[illegible] to our protecting care.

Forget not the field where they perish'd,
The truest, the last of the brave,
All gone,—and the bright hopes we cherish'd
Gone with them, 'and quench'd in their graves.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I would that more of the alumni of our University were very watchful of what is doing there. As "Alumnus" has made a beginning in criticising, before the public, the acts of the Trustees and Faculty of an Institution which belongs to that public, I hope that he will continue in what may prove to be a very necessary work. Only let his criticisms be fair applications of well known principles.—I have known the University of North Carolina for many years; for just as many, I have known that its Faculty were never paid much over half what their services secured in other such Institutions. I never heard that they were blame-worthy while employing their spare time in attending to their gardens—to private pupils—to farms, or to preaching for the congregations in Chapel Hill or its neighborhood, provided, that such labors did not interfere with their duties as teachers in the University. We all know that the tuition fees of the pupils there now will not give the Professors more than $600 or $700 a year, wherewith to clothe and feed their families, and buy such books as the times require them to possess.

As a Student, as a Tutor and as a Professor, Mr. Pool doubtless knows, what has always been considered lawful, expedient and honorable in fulfilling the duties of his professorship. As an intelligent man, he is likely to know what is inconsistent with those duties, and as a preacher of the Gospel of Righteousness, he ought to be trusted as not likely to do what is wrong. The charity which "thinketh no evil" should lead us to write and see whether a Mathematician cannot teach that with which he is very familiar, and have enough time besides to organise and oversee an office wherein calculations abound. At the University of our State, the profession is, and I hope that the practice always will be, to ignore sects in Religion and parties in politics. Some, who are now desirous of wiping out the record, violated this rule in the case of Prof. Hedrick, and what have come of their success? For one, I say let there be at least one place in North Carolina, where the youth of our State can learn by experience that men may differ in the conclusions of their reason, while they agree in self denying labors for the good of their country, in Church and in State. AN OLD "DI."

The Approaching Commencement.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The graduating classes of 1855, 1856, and 1857 made an agreement to meet at Chapel Hill, at the Commencement of 1865. This meeting having been prevented by the war, some members of the class of 1856, who live at a great distance, have made arrangements to visit their Alma Mater at the next Commencement, and it is hoped that as many as possible of that class, as well as the classes of '55 and '57, will be present at the University on that occasion.

Freedmen's Bureau in Edgecombe.

ROCKY MOUNT, No. CA., }
May 19th, 1866. }

MESSRS. EDITORS: I see that much is being published in this State with regard to the conduct of the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau.

It is apparent to every practical and law-abiding man in the country, that there is no necessity for military force of any kind here now, nor is there any probability that there will ever be. Those who have done the most for the South, during the late revolution, are most disposed to "calm the troubled waters."

It is due to Lieut. W. F. Cox, who has command in the Counties of Nash and Edgecombe, to state that he has given general satisfaction.

You are aware that Edgecombe County has been regarded as one of the finest Cotton-growing Counties in the State. Her people have been known as hard workers. Laborers, previously to the war, were controlled by system, and there was a degree of regularity about every department of plantations, probably unlike any exercised as a general rule in any County in the State.

Lieut. Cox has pursued a course, since he has been here, which has been alike acceptable to the landlord and the laborer. It would be well for all, that such a course should be adopted throughout the State. Instead of ordering parties to his headquarters, he visits plantations, settles all controversies there; neither party looses any time; and I can state, from personal knowledge, that in no case, where this course has been pursued, has he failed to give satisfaction to all parties. Farmers send for him from all parts of this district, and when among the freedmen his advice to them has been to labor faithfully, to be cleanly, take care of their money, and to respect the laws of the State. Many of the freedmen were not aware that whilst they enjoyed most of the privileges of the white man, they were subject to such obligations as working roads, taxation, &c. This, he has impressed upon them, and coming from him, they are satisfied.

The people of Edgecombe feel under many obligations to Lieut. Cox for his efforts to promote the interest of the County, and it is due from us to him to give credit to those to whom credit is due. B.

A great freshet is anticipated in the Mississippi. That river was rising and so was the Red River at last accounts.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. EDITOR:—Permit me to remind the Convention that assembles in Raleigh next Thursday of a class of debts in North Carolina that are yet unprovided for by law.

Large numbers of negroes were sold on credit by executers and others during the war, and the notes are still outstanding; because the claimants refused Confederate money in payment. Those negroes were sold as slaves but are now free, and unless some provision is made by law there will be endless litigation in such cases.

As I presume there is no constitutional impediment, the Convention I think, can save much expense and trouble by action on the subject.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

Trial of President Davis.

The New York World says that Mr. Davis if brought to trial will probably be acquitted. It gives the following reasons:

The grounds for expecting acquittal as more probable than conviction, are, that the framers of the Constitution intended to make convictions for treason not easy, but difficult; and that the laws passed by our fathers favor this tendency. Nobody doubted that Burr was a traitor; but Burr escaped although the administration of Mr. Jefferson did its utmost to secure his conviction. Burr was indebted for his escape entirely to the rulings of Chief-Justice Marshall, and not at all to the character of the jury. His followers and accomplices were men collected from various places; they did not, like the abettors of the rebellion, form a compact community whose members were nearly unanimous in sentiment. The constitutional provision, therefore, which requires a trial to be before a jury of the State and district where the scene of the indictment is laid, did not favor him, as it does Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis must be tried before a Virginia jury, and the erection of West Virginia into a separate State is favorable to his acquittal, as no juryman can be drawn from thence. By the statute regulating trials for treason, the accused may peremptory challenge thirty-five jurors, and as many more as he pleases for cause. All who "have deliberately formed an opinion that the party is guilty of the crime charged against him are disqualified to serve as jurors." The probabilities are, that such consistent Union men as may be summoned as jurymen will in this way be disqualified, and the peremptory challenge of thirty-five besides, is likely to secure, in the State of Virginia, a jury of some members who will be favorable to Mr. Davis. But if, of the whole twelve, there is even one that stands for his acquittal, the jury will not agree, and disagreement is as good for him as an acquittal, since he cannot be tried again on the same charge. It is easy to see, therefore, that the chances are at least eleven to one that Mr. Davis will not be convicted.

What is then to be gained by a trial? The World remarks:

To get a judicial decision on the right of secession, and "to make treason odious," are the two avowed reasons for putting Mr. Davis on trial. But even though President Johnson unites with the Republican party in urging them, they are reasons which will not very well bear scrutiny. To submit the secession question to a court is to imply that it is still open to doubt! Suppose the court should decide that secession is a constitutional right; would President Johnson and the Republican party admit it? Not for a moment! To submit, as if it were still doubtful, a question which is decided beyond appeal, savors not of the sincerity due to so grave a subject. Can any loyal man in the North really wish to submit to judicial decision the question whether, after all, the war we have waged with the South has not been a wrong? If we admit that the question is doubtful, and that an argument by the best legal intellects and a solemn judicial decision are needed to settle it, we thereby go very far towards exculpating the prisoner in advance.

If the question be, even at this late day, so doubtful and difficult, the Southern people may have innocently held either side of it; and the great body of them are neither more nor less guilty than Mr. Davis himself. If the decision is desired for their benefit, how can we expect them to respect it when we are ready to avow beforehand that we would not yield our convictions on this subject even to the authority of the Supreme Court? If we refuse to accept from the court anything but the echo of our own views, what better can we expect of them? It is difficult to discover the necessity of submitting to further discussion a question which has been irrepealably decided. In this view, therefore, the trial of Mr. Davis will be little better than a judicial farce.

The other avowed purpose for the trial is "to make treason odious." But suppose Mr. Davis should be acquitted? This, we take it, is a more probable event than any other. Would an acquittal render treason more odious than it is already?

The World concludes, however, that President Johnson could hardly commit a graver political mistake than to enter a nulle prosequi.

Whether the trial results in Mr. Davis' release or his conviction, it is equally incumbent on the President to see that he has "a speedy trial." His release from custody by a trial, relieves the President from all responsibility; and if the trial is presided over by the Radical Chief Justice, the result will not be open to party cavil.

[From the "Courrier Des Etats Unis."]

Mr. Davis has been prisoner more than eight months, and although the Constitution guarantees to every person accused of any crime a speedy trial, yet there is no appearance that the Ex-President of the Confederate States will be soon judged. It is not that President Johnson does not desire that that trial should take place, but his wishes are thwarted by two men whom history will judge severely. Chief Justice Chase, of the Supreme Court, and Mr. Attorney General Speed. It is recollected that the Senate, by resolution, demanded of the President the cause of the delay in the trial of Mr. Davis. Consequently, the President has communicated to the Senate two reports, one from Mr. Stanton and the other from Mr. Speed.

We will make no observations upon the accusations which were brought to bear against Mr. Davis, among others, that of complicity in the death of Mr. Lincoln. We will only remark that Mr. Speed counsels that "as soon as the war should have ceased," the brave officers and men, who have believed themselves covered by the terms of the surrender of Lee and Johnson, should be tried and punished. Mr. Speed, in matter of clemency and good policy, belongs to the school of Maine Legislators who, true sons of virtuous and charitable New England have yesterday passed resolutions requesting their Governor to demand of President Johnson, "that Mr. Davis and the principal traitors should be immediately and summarily tried and punished in an exemplary way."

THE PROPOSED EXPORT TAX ON COTTON.—The proposed amendment to the Constitution offered by Mr. Stevens, providing an export duty of five per cent. on cotton, was considered this morning by the House Judiciary Committee, and resulted in a tie vote—three to three.—Had the other members of the committee been present, it is understood that Mr. Stevens's amendment would have been agreed to by the committee.

Arrest of Freedmen's Bureau Officers.

The Washington Star, of Saturday afternoon, says that the President has directed Major General Howard to cause the arrest of every officer of the Bureau in North Carolina who is engaged or pecuniarily interested in the cultivation of plantations, and Brigadier General W. E. Strong has been dispatched to execute the order. Judge Advocate General Holt has been instructed by the President to make out charges and specifications against these officers, with a view to their trial before a court martial.

The Rev. Fitz, against whom the charges are very severe, is already under arrest, and awaits his trial.

THE TEST-OATH PRONOUNCED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.—There is no doubt now that the Supreme Court of the United States has decided the Missouri test-oath unconstitutional. Hon. Frank P. Blair, in a speech recently made at Macon Mission, Mo., said:

I am here to-day, my friends, to tell you that the Supreme Court of the United States have already decided that this Constitution is invalid and void. I was told so myself by one of the Judges of the Supreme Court in Washington, and he told me, in addition, that the only reason why the announcement of the decision was not made, was that the minority of those who held that the law was constitutional (four Judges holding it constitutional and five declaring it unconstitutional) was the four who begged that the announcement might be postponed till the next term, which meets in December.—(A voice—"Until after the election in this State.") That language was not used, but it amounted to that. I can give my theory of this matter, and I tell you what I know and what the Judge told me.

THE PERSONNEL OF THE ALEXANDRIA CONVENTION.—There were about sixty persons who voted in this Convention, and though seventeen counties were asserted to be represented, many of those seventeen had only one representative, and many of the representatives stated that they had come "on their own hook," and without being delegated to come by any vote or voters in their respective counties. Of the entire number present not more than a dozen were born in Virginia, and a more ordinary looking body of men we never beheld. Of the intellectual and educational attainments of the convention, all who attended its sessions have, to say the least, by no means an exalted opinion.—Alexandria Gazette.

EXPOSURE.—Petitions having been presented in the U. S. Senate from the Valley of Virginia, purporting to declare the persecuted condition of the Union men, and asking for a continuance of the military, the Staunton Vindicator publishes the affidavits of a number of persons declaring that their names were obtained to this petition by false pretences, &c.

Bishop Burgess, of the P. E. Church, in Maine, is reported to have died on his return homeward from the West Indies, in search of health.

The Diocese of Virginia of the Protestant Episcopal Church at its late Convention was formally re-united to the P. E. Church in the United States.

The Ladies of Petersburg have organized fully the Confederate Memorial Society and adopted a constitution and laws for its government. The object is to provide proper burial and a monument for the soldiers of Petersburg, who fell in the late struggle.

The U. S. Government sold $1,500,000 in gold in New York, on the 18th inst., at 30½. It was intended for exportation to Europe.

The blood-shriekers are sending petitions to Congress for the judicial murder of Jeff. Davis, urging his speedy trial, and desiring his speedy execution.

Bishop Lay, of Arkansas, has been elected by the Louisiana Council, Bishop of Louisiana, to succeed the late Bishop Polk.

$25 REWARD.

MY MULE, a large dusky bay horse mule, above the medium size, which was stolen from my premises on the 26th of April last, although I have detected the thief, is still out of my possession. I learn that the animal has been sold to or is in the possession of some one near Nashville in Nash County, or may have been sent into Edgecombe or Martin, to evade my search. I warn all persons against trading for said property, and would advise any person having the animal in possession to return him to me and claim the above reward, if they would escape the severity of the law.

NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the found r of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the preconceived notions of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is a fact, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. White for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 50 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the space of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January, 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him those Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

Its Effect is Miraculous!

IT is an entirely new scientific discovery, combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.

We have such confidence in its merits, and are so sure it will do all we claim for it that we offer if the Sicilian Hair Renewer does not give satisfaction in all cases when used in strict accordance with our instructions.

$1,000 REWARD

HALL'S

has proved itself to be the most perfect preparation for the Hair ever offered to the public.

It is a vegetable compound, and contains no injurious properties whatever.

It is not a Dye, it strikes at the roots and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp and makes the Hair soft, lustrous and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person old or young, should fail to use it.

It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

☞ Ask for Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer and take no other

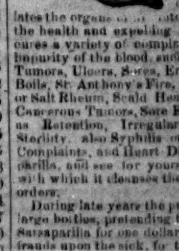
CLEANSE THE BLOOD.



With corrupt, discordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonym as with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We ask only a trial of the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most efficient purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A NEW PAPER.

I propose to commence, at an early day, the publication of a Daily Paper, in the City of Raleigh, to be called the "CITY INDEX." It will be published on the plan of a Penny paper but not quite so cheap for the present. It will be delivered daily by Carriers, and must be paid for weekly.

The INDEX will be published as a news paper, and will have nothing to do with parties, politics or politicians. It will give the latest news, general and commercial; local and State items; poetry, anecdotes marriages and deaths.

The terms of subscription and advertising will be put at the lowest notch, and will be published in the first issue of the paper.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fever.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from War enton to the Springs
